The cost listed for each product is the approximate acquisition cost. For one-time prescriptions, such as antibiotics and analgesics, the dollar amount is the approximate acquisition cost for a single prescription of average quantity. For maintenance medications, the dollar amount will represent the approximate acquisition cost for a 30-day supply of medication. See the pricing structure below:

$ = <$10
 $$ = $11-20
 $$$ = $21-40
 $$$$ = $41-60
 $$$$$ = $61-80
 >$$$$$ = >$80

- A. Items subject to Prior Authorization are marked with "(PA)".
- B. Generic versions of brand name drugs are preferred unless medically necessary.
- C. Please reserve use of Non-Formulary drugs for patients with contraindications or documented treatment failures to Formulary agents.
- D. All oral FDA approved anti-neoplastic, immunosuppressive and HIV agents are eligible for coverage under the prescription drug benefit.
